Invitation to Participate at the Best Annual Reports and Accounts Competition - 2023

Association of Public Finance Accountants of Sri Lanka (APFASL), the Public Sector Wing of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Sri Lanka is organizing the best annual reports and accounts competition for the Public sector institutions based on the 2022 Accounts. The ultimate purpose of this competition is to enhance the standards of financial reporting in the public sector through a process of competitive interaction between participating institutions.

All the State Owned Enterprises (SOEs) are encouraged to participate to this competition which will benefit to improve the quality of Annual Reports and Accounts and in turn to enhance the transparency and accountability of SOEs. The staff engaged in the preparation and presentation of Annual Reports along with the Financial Statements could get guidance for that work through the Guideline published by the APFASL and it is available to purchase at their office.

You are kindly requested to participate at this competition by submitting the Annual Report of 2022 the latest by mid this year to make this national endeavor a complete success to enhance the public finance management standards in the public sector institutions in the country.

P.A.S. Athula Kamara
Director General
