Heads of Public Corporations, Statutory Boards,
State Owned Companies and State Banks

Temporarily Suspension of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Activities of State Owned Enterprises (SOEs);

The government has identified that the SOEs have been executing a vast number of CSR activities including sponsorships, donations and advertisements without a clear objective of achieving the government's development goals.

In this background, you are kindly requested to suspend the CSR activities of your Agency until further notice. However, the Chief Accounting Officer, members of the Board of Management and Chief Executive Officer will be held personally responsible, if any CSR activities are continued or initiated notwithstanding the said instructions.

S.R. Attygalle
Secretary to the Treasury

Copy to: 1. Secretary to the President

2. All Secretaries to the Ministries - Please take necessary actions and follow up.
